

June 13th, 2010
Lesson #4

"The Big Foot Scrub"

Hello Parents,

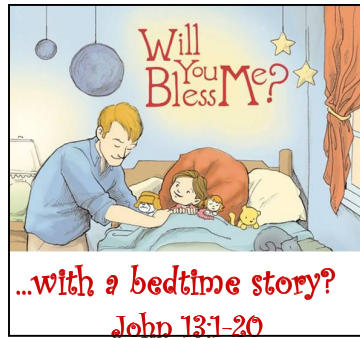

Today was our fourth lesson from our "Journey to the Cross" series. Today we learned that right before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew it was time to leave the earth and go back to heaven. It was time for the meek and the devil had already persuaded Judas to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that He was sent from God, and that he had all authority. He also knew that he would go back to God. Jesus got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist and poured water into a basin. He began to wash the disciples feet, then dried them with a towel. When it was Peter's turn, Peter asked Jesus if He was going to wash his feet. Peter refused and told Jesus that He would never wash his feet. Jesus replied and said that unless He did, he no longer belonged to Jesus. Peter said " Then wash my head and hands too, not just my feet." He said " You call me teacher and Lord and that is correct." He also said that since He was Lord and teacher, the disciples needed to imitate what He had done and wash other's feet. Jesus said that slaves are not greater than their master and messengers greater than the one who sent them. If they imitated him then God would bless them. Jesus said whoever welcomed His messenger, welcome Him and whoever welcomed Jesus welcomed his Father.

Hide this verse in your heart:

John: 13:15

"For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you"

Have you included the Bible in your bedtime story routine with your child(ren)? Why not start tonight!

* Bring this paper back to the Check-In Booth next Sunday and recite the memory verse above to earn extra stickers for our ongoing Check-In Contest. Each sticker is a point towards winning a prize in June! You can also earn more by bringing a friend, your Bible, offering, and just by coming each Sunday!

June 13th, 2010
Lesson #4

"The Big Foot Scrub"

Hello Parents,

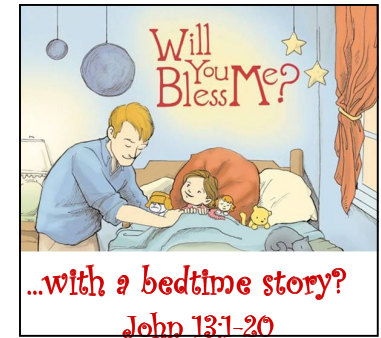

Today was our fourth lesson from our "Journey to the Cross" series. Today we learned that right before the Passover celebration, Jesus knew it was time to leave the earth and go back to heaven. It was time for the meek and the devil had already persuaded Judas to betray Jesus. Jesus knew that He was sent from God, and that he had all authority. He also knew that he would go back to God. Jesus got up from the table, took off his robe, wrapped a towel around his waist and poured water into a basin. He began to wash the disciples feet, then dried them with a towel. When it was Peter's turn, Peter asked Jesus if He was going to wash his feet. Peter refused and told Jesus that He would never wash his feet. Jesus replied and said that unless He did, he no longer belonged to Jesus. Peter said " Then wash my head and hands too, not just my feet." He said " You call me teacher and Lord and that is correct." He also said that since He was Lord and teacher, the disciples needed to imitate what He had done and wash other's feet. Jesus said that slaves are not greater than their master and messengers greater than the one who sent them. If they imitated him then God would bless them. Jesus said whoever welcomed His messenger, welcome Him and whoever welcomed Jesus welcomed his Father.

Hide this verse in your heart:

John: 13:15

"For I have given you an example, that you should do as I have done to you"

Have you included the Bible in your bedtime story routine with your child(ren)? Why not start tonight!

* Bring this paper back to the Check-In Booth next Sunday and recite the memory verse above to earn extra stickers for our ongoing Check-In Contest. Each sticker is a point towards winning a prize in June! You can also earn more by bringing a friend, your Bible, offering, and just by coming each Sunday!